

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

Following the entry into force of the May 25th, 2018 General Regulation on Data Protection 2016/679, we have reinforced our privacy policy.

1. Our commitments regarding the protection of your personal data

To put your mind at ease while navigating our website, we, at TRIGANO VDL, as the Controller, hereby inform you that we collect, process and use your personal data to bring you new services every day while respecting your rights.

We protect your private life by ensuring the protection, the confidentiality, the non-alteration, the availability and the security of the personal data you entrust us with through all our communication channels.

We take all necessary measures in order to:

- Provide you with clear and transparent information regarding the way your personal data is collected and processed;
- Set up all technical and organizational measures necessary to protect your personal data against disclosure, loss, alteration or access by a non-authorized third party;
- Store your personal data only for the time necessary for the processing or for the concerned service;
- Offer you the possibility to access and modify your personal data that we process at any time.

In order to reach these goals, we implement all appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure that the processing conforms to applicable laws governing personal data protection.

1. When do we collect your personal data and which data do we collect?

Your personal data may be collected when:

- you create an account on our website ;
- you visit our website which may use cookies;
- you interact with our customer services;
- you subscribe to our newsletter.

Given the above, TRIGANO VDL, the Controller, is lead to carry out data processing pursuant to applicable regulation for the purposes of communicating with you. After you have subscribed to our website and provided you don't oppose this, you, our website user, may thus receive newsletters and informational content.

Information whose collection is strictly necessary to provide you with a service is marked with an asterisk and usually concerns your first name, last name and email address.

Regarding cookies which are collected while you are connected to TRIGANO VDL's website, we encourage you to consult our Cookies policy.

We may also be lead to collect data when you apply online via our recruitment module. Regarding recruitment, we invite you to consult our policy on personal data protection for job applicants by clicking on the following link.

2. Who are the recipients of your personal data?

We ensure that only those people who have been habilitated within TRIGANO VDL may access your personal data.

We may communicate your data to third parties when they act as processors and are bound by contract to provide services including hosting, storing, communication, data processing, data base management or computer maintenance. In certain cases, we may share your personal data with other companies within the TRIGANO group at the European level. These companies and these controllers shall be held to the same safety and confidentiality obligations as TRIGANO VDL.

3. Where is your personal data stored?

Data is stored in keeping with French law and European regulation.

Should our Processor operate outside of the European Union, we protect the confidentiality of your personal data and your rights by using data protection clauses recommended by the European Commission.

Data conservation durations conform to the CNIL's recommendations and/or legal obligations:

Duration of personal data storage by TRIGANO VDL

Account data: 3 years from your last contact with TRIGANO VDL

Identification documents communicated for the purposes of exercising the rights to interrogate, access, rectify and oppose: 3 years from the reception by TRIGANO VDL.

At the end of these periods, we may archive data, in particular to conform to legal action prescription times.
